PRIVACY POLICY NOTICE

We at Lawyers Title Agency of Delaware are committed to protecting the privacy of our customer's personal information. Generally, Title V of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA) prohibits any financial institution, directly or through its affiliates, from sharing nonpublic personal information about you with a nonaffiliated third party unless the institution provides you with a notice of its privacy policies and practices, such as the type of information that it collects about you and the categories of persons or entities to whom it may be disclosed. In compliance with the GLBA, we are providing you with this document, which notifies you of the privacy policies and practices of Lawyers Title Agency of Delaware, Inc.

In the ordinary course of our business we may collect nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you, such as your name, address, telephone number or social security number;
- Information about you and your transaction with us or others. We receive this information from your lender, attorney, real estate agent, our files, etc.;
- Information from public records.

This information may be collected in writing, in person, by telephone, or by certain electronic means, and we may store such information indefinitely, even after any customer relationship has ceased.

We restrict nonpublic personal information access to our employees and others that need such information for providing products and services to you, for conducting the ordinary course of our business, for furnishing real estate settlement services, and for issuing title insurance. Such information may also be disclosed in compliance with law, such as in response to a subpoena or governmental agency, or to prevent fraud. We maintain various electronic, physical, and procedural safeguards to protect your nonpublic personal information.
